

Deep Space LIVE

Linz at around 1900 in 3D

Thursday, December 2, 2010 / 8-9 PM / Ars Electronica Center

(Linz, November 29, 2010) An amazing 3D virtual stroll through turn-of-the-20th-century Linz is being staged by the Municipal Archive and the Ars Electronica Center. Stereoscopic images deliver an incredibly lifelike, three-dimensional experience of Linz at around the year 1900 ...

Journey through History with Walter Schuster of the Archive of the City of Linz

Accompanying guests on this extraordinary excursion is a top expert in the field: Walter Schuster, director of the Archive of the City of Linz and a scholar who has published numerous works on local history.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission (including an accompanying person) is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
