

Deep Space LIVE

Studios

Thursday, April 14, 2011 / 8-9 PM / Ars Electronica Center Linz

(Linz, April 11, 2011) Linz artist Norbert Artner and Martin Hochleitner, director of the Landesgalerie Linz, cordially invite you to accompany them on a photographic excursion this Thursday in Deep Space. Their images of ateliers and studios will present places where art is not just put on display but where it is actually created.

Norbert Artner

Artist Norbert Artner has taught at Linz Art University since 1995. For about the last four years, he has focused on all sorts of locations in which art is produced, whereby his photographs of ateliers and studios document actual, specific working situations. Artner's photographic technique of assembling each image from numerous individual shots leads to what is simultaneously a construction and deconstruction of reality. New York is one of the many places where he has exhibited his work.

Martin Hochleitner

Martin Hochleitner studied classical archaeology and art history in Salzburg. He has been director of Landesgalerie Linz since 2000. Hochleitner possesses a profound knowledge of photography. He has served as a member of the Austrian Federal Chancellery's Photographic Advisory Council. In 2007-08, he taught photographic theory at the University of Applied Arts Vienna. In 2008, he was appointed Professor of Art History at Linz Art University.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is now hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission (including an accompanying person) is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
