

Deep Space LIVE: Commemorative Plaques & Metal Sculpture. Monuments in Linz II

Thursday, December 13, 2012 / 8-9 PM / Ars Electronica Center

(Linz, December 7, 2012) Visitors to the next Deep Space LIVE on Thursday, December 13th will be taking a virtual stroll through Linz. Cathrin Hermann of the Municipal Archive will screen jumbo-scale, high-definition projections showing prominent (as well as some little-known) monuments and places of commemoration in Linz. She'll also provide some fascinating political and social background information about several of the memorials, and show which treasures from days gone by are still to be found in Linz today—for instance, the sundial in solarCity, the republic memorial near the Nibelungen Bridge, and market fountain in Ebelsberg.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is now hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
