

Deep Space LIVE: Best of Linz_Then/Now

Thursday, February 6, 2014 /8-9 PM / Ars Electronica Center

(Linz, January 31, 2014) Architectural changes as well as continuities in Linz's urban development will be featured at the next Deep Space LIVE this Thursday, February 6th at 8 PM. Fritz Mayrhofer, former director of the Municipal Archive, will present historical photographs of the cityscape juxtaposed to current images taken from the same angle. Many of our older visitors are sure to be reminded of scenes from their childhood; younger Linzers, on the other hand, will confront a place that is familiar and strange at the same time. All the pictures are from the photography book series Linz_Einst/Jetzt 1-3.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center is now hosting a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation will feature ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and will be accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the Nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Admission is €2. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
