Deep Space LIVE: Scuba Diving in Upper Austria

Thursday, June 2, 2016 / 8-9 PM

(Linz, May 31, 2016) Upper Austria's lakes and rivers are the featured attractions at the next Deep Space LIVE on Thursday, June 2nd at 8 PM. Scuba diver and underwater filmmaker Walter Brunbauer will present breathtaking footage of the Attersee and Traunsee and the Traun river to impressively demonstrate that, even in the vicinity of big cities, underwater wonders await discovery.

About Walter Brunbauer

Walter Brunbauer was born in 1961 in Linz and has been a scuba enthusiast for 50 years. For the last 20 years, he's been a full-time diving instructor. Since 2000, he and his wife have managed the national affairs of a diving association. In cooperation with experts, they have assembled extensive teaching materials for scuba training. His travels have taken him to the world's diving paradises—the Mediterranean, the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean as well as the lakes and rivers of Upper Austria.

Deep Space LIVE

The Ars Electronica Center hosts a Deep Space LIVE event every Thursday (except holidays) at 8 PM. Each presentation features ultra-high-definition imagery in 16x9-meter format and is accompanied by expert commentary, entertaining stand-up repartee, and musical improvisation. Whether great works from the history of art, space travel, journeys of discovery in the nanoworld, or a live concert is what you've come to behold, Deep Space LIVE stands for enlightening entertainment amidst breathtaking worlds of imagery. Holders of a valid Museum ticket are admitted free of charge.
